

Figure 8. Workflow in classification based on several feature extraction matrices result. Classification based on feature extractions are implemented in three schemes, namely minSum, minMax, and minSum in the several dimensions (64, 128, and 196). The accuracy, sensitivity, and specitivity are then implemented in thee group of patients i.e T2DM, non-T2DM, and Healthy by avoiding the outlier.